

Ruby Osborn Marshall, 97

Ruby O. Marshall passed away peacefully June 14, 2017, at Cape Heritage Nursing Home in Sandwich, Mass., at the age of 97. A lifelong Duxbury and Plymouth resident, she was the daughter of Lester Wright Osborn and Edith Mary Needham of Duxbury. She was predeceased by her brother Robert J. Osborn of Duxbury and Milton.

Born in Duxbury, she attended Partridge Academy and later went on to become a legal secretary, business owner, housewife and mother.

She was an avid ballroom dancer, tennis player, loved the beach, sewing and macrame, and was queen of the "to-do" lists. She owned a dress shop in Lauderdale-By-The-Sea, Fla. from 1969 to 1977 where she spent her winters. She was co-owner of The Milepost Restaurant in Duxbury from 1961 to 1979.

She was the widow of the late David H. Marshall of Duxbury. She is survived by her sons, Mark O. Simpson and his partner, Kristine A. Hogan of Sandwich and Robert J. Tuttle and his wife, Kandice L. Tuttle, of Kittery, Maine; grandchildren Stephanie M. Simpson of Plymouth and Sarah P. Tuttle of Kittery, Maine (predeceased); and niece Linda O. Ross of Mechanics Falls, Maine.

A private service will be held at Mayflower Cemetery.
